

DMACC Theater – Boone Campus and Ankeny Campus

DMACC Boone Campus Photo Gallery

Director: Kay Mueller

Photos courtesy of Kay Mueller

Visit <https://www.dmacc.edu/boone/Pages/theater.aspx> for further information about Boone Theater.

Drinking Habits Spring 2017

The Trouble with Beth Spring 2016

Taking Leave Fall 1016

Plaza Suite
Fall 2015

Francine's Will
Spring 2015

Touch of Danger Fall 2014

Leading Ladies Fall 2013

Rumors
Spring 2013

The Importance of Being Earnest
Spring 2012

The Sensuous Senator –Fall2011

Theatre at the Ankeny Campus

Spring 1988 to Spring 1991

Contributed by Judy Hauser

Theatre Productions:

- Spring 1991     A Case of Missing Hot Dogs (Children's Play)
- Fall 1990       The Dinner Party (Guest Director Steve Poole) /Joint production with Ankeny Community Theatre
- Spring 1990    Murder by Membership Only
- Fall 1989       Barefoot in the Park/Joint production with Ankeny Community Theatre
- Spring 1989    Wolf's Breath and Pig Tales (Children's Play)/ Joint venture with Ingersoll Dinner Theatre
- Fall 1988       Two by Two (Musical)
- Summer 1988   Egad, The Woman in White
- Spring 1988    Dark Deed's at Swan's Place

Additional Information about Play Productions:

- Three hundred and fifty elementary students were bussed in for two performances of A Case of Missing Hot Dogs
- DMACC students acted in an Ingersoll Children's Theatre show, Wolf's Breath and Pig Tales, as part of a cooperative venture between the Ingersoll Dinner Theatre and DMACC.
- DMACC students acted in two productions, Barefoot in the Part and The Dinner Party, as part of a cooperative venture between Ankeny Community Theatre and DMACC. The Dinner Party was guest directed by Steve Poole, a Drama Workshop Director.
- The Woman in White, an old-fashioned melodrama, was performed at Living History Farms and the Iowa State Fair.

Community Outreach and Public Relations:

- Groups of DMACC students directed by Judy Hauser have performed at Art in the Park, The Two Rivers Festival, Beaverdale Days, Drake Fest, and the Des Moines Teacher's Convention.
- Casts have performed select scenes at the Main and South Side Libraries.
- DMACC students have assisted Judy Hauser in creative dramatic workshops at Yale-Jamaica-Bagley, Stuart-Menlo, Edmunds Fine Arts Academy, the Des Moines Community Playhouse, and the Metro Arts After School Program.
- DMACC students have performed scenes for the Riches to Share Program and the Westminster Presbyterian Church Senior Citizen's Group.
- Two DMACC students, responding to a casting call from Iowa Public Television, interpreted literature for the TV program Living in Iowa.
- The DMACC Drama Department was contacted by various commercial and civic organizations including the Botanical Center, the Hotel Fort Des Moines, Mr. Bulky, Camp Sunnyside, soliciting students for drama-related activities.
- The DMACC Drama Department was also received calls from around theatre organizations around the Des Moines area seeking young adult actors for their productions.

Theatre Classes:

- Class offerings doubles: Introduction to Theater and Acting offered year round
- We offered an advanced acting class spring 1993 due to interest in continued study
- Professional artists from Des Moines theatre have offered workshops in acting and make-up

Photos from Ankeny Campus Productions:

Visit <https://www.dmacc.edu/theatre/Pages/ankeny.aspx> for further information about Ankeny Campus Theater.

Murder by Membership Only

Directed by Judy Hauser

Barefoot in the Park

Directed by Judy Hauser

Never Trust a Tattooed Sailor

Directed by Judy Hauser

Ingersoll Dinner Theater Children's Theater Presented by DMACC students/Directed by Judy Hauser

